Computer Criminal Acts - What Would To Know About It Before They Happen

Summary: Computer criminal acts are criminal acts which is happening almost daily and therefore it is necessary to know how to treat them national criminal legislation. Of course, it treats them like other criminal acts and punishes them as prescribed by the Criminal Code. In order to computer criminal act (and other criminal acts prescribed by the Criminal Code) to have been realized, must be fulfilled certain assumptions, and when it be fulfilled, criminal proceedings may begin.