

Decomposition of some induced representations in the case of one half cuspidal reducibility

Igor Ciganović

Department of Mathematics Faculty of Science University of Zagreb, Zagreb

In this talk we consider composition series of representations induced from two irreducible representations of GL, each attached to a segment, and a cuspidal representation of a classical group over p-adic field, where cuspidal reducibility is one half.